

Telemarketers may have free speech, but the american people also have the right to not listen. And a lot of us don't want to listen to them talk. You need to enforce the use of the do not call lists and to not allow them to call cell phones.